Grumpy cat weather memes

News of the grumpy cat's death has left the world away this morning. We expected that this day would never come. But like all pet owners know, they will eventually move on from their best friends. Not many, however, have a lifetime of hilarious memes and millions of adoration, if not obsessive, fans to help them cope with their suffering. A quick glance on social media will offer thousands of gifs of grumpy cat owner, Tabatha Bundesen, of her beloved pet, who won around the world with her face permanently impressed. Or the family could go to Madame Tussauds to find an immortal life-size version of Tardar sauce — which was her real name, by the way. The grumpy cat, who had cat dwarfism, quickly rose to fame after a photo was posted on Reddit in September 2012 and since then she has inspired a generation of hysterical memes. The sad news has hit internet users hard because never one animal managed to sum up the misery of human life every day, quite like him. In fact, he may be the most relative animal on the planet because there's a grumpy cat meme for any scenario, which we think is less guilty about being, well, grumpy. Planned with friends but can't be bothered anymore and would rather cry to sleep than let yourself go? There's a grumpy cat meme. Are you a miserable hunk and hate the moment jingle bells get out of every radio from December 17? There's a grumpy cat fest meme. Sat at a table on a deserted Monday morning and your boss gives you a job? Apparently, there's a grumpy cat meme for that too. In honor of everyone's favorite grumpy cat, let's take a look back at some of her finest work that could brighten up any miserable day. He will be greatly missed.
